

No one wants to be alone

No one wants to cry
of loneliness
Come and hold me
in your arms
You cannot find a lover
like me
in the whole wide world
No place is safer than my shoulders
to lean on
If you want to feel love's great warmth
come and hold me
tight against yourself
Fall into my arms
No one can love you like I do
I long for your kisses
your lips
Come with spring
Give life to me
Come with spring
